ENGLISH
34

146827-1001

Wm. Jackson

Royal Academy of Music
Library

115.

2

When first this humble Roof I knew a favorite Song

Sung by

Mr. BANNISTER in the LORD of the MANOR

Composed by William Jackson of Exeter.

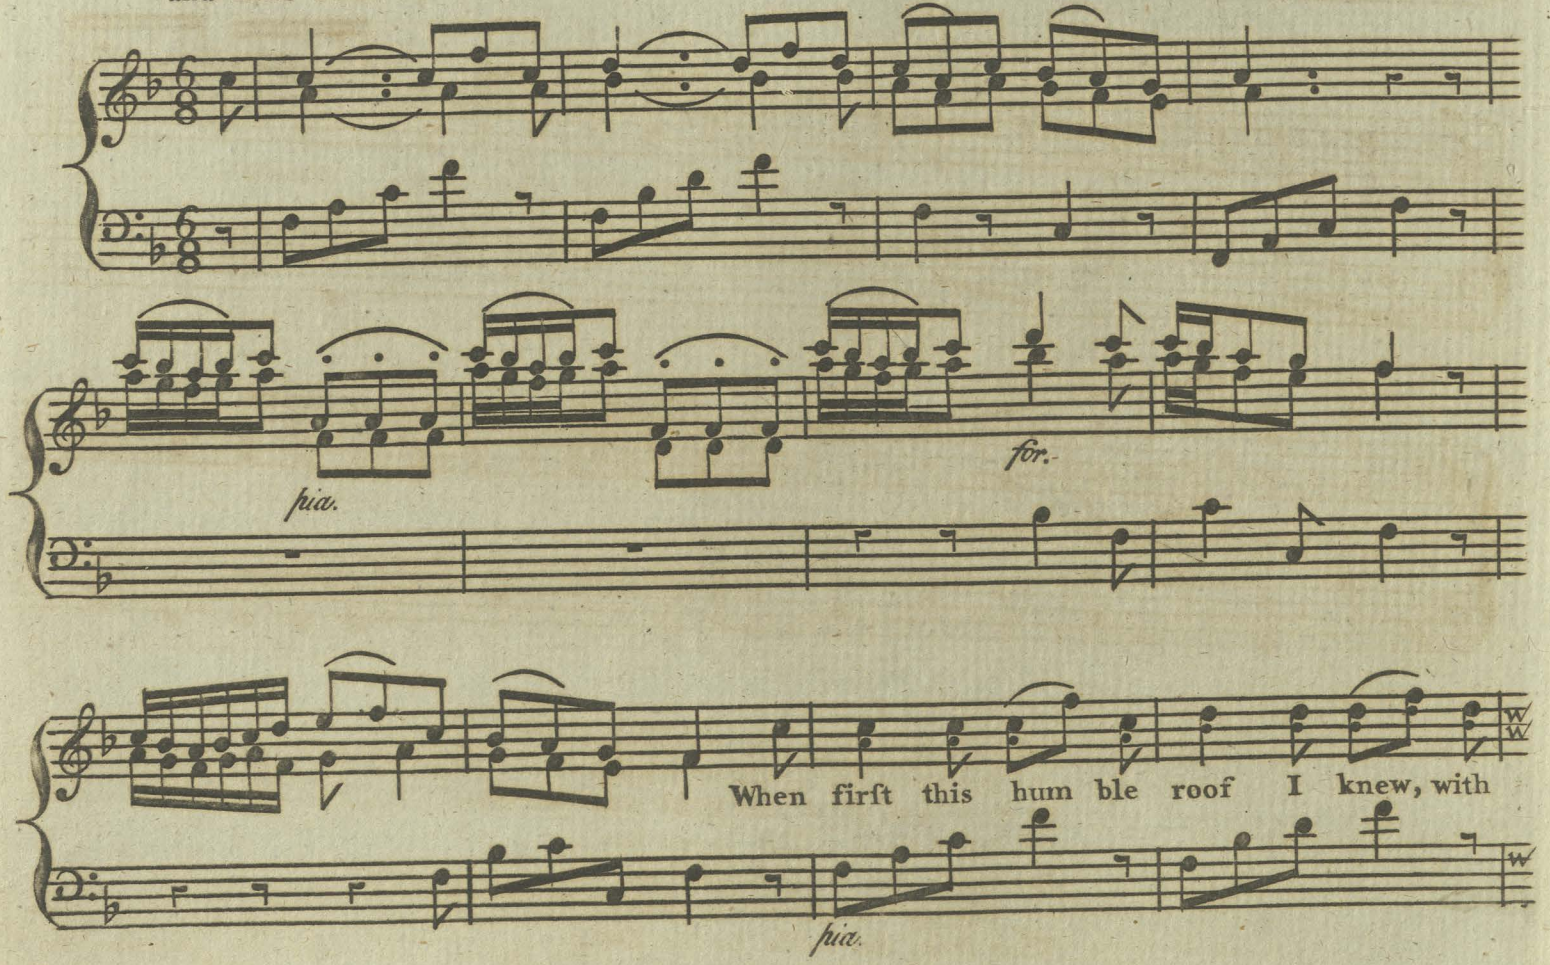
Price 6d.

Royal Academy of Music Library

LONDON.

Printed & Sold by Preston & Son at their Warehouses 97 Strand & Exeter Change

Where may be had by the above Author. "Encompass'd in an Angels frame" Sung by Mr. Bannister. and "Rest beauteous Flow'r and bloom anew" Sung by Miss Prudom. Price 6d. each.



Royal Academy of Music Library

va - rious cares I ſtrove, my Grain was ſcarce my Sheep were few, my

for.

all of life was love. By mu - tual toil our board was dreſs'd the Spring our drink be ſtow'd; but when her Lip the brim had preſs'd, the Cup with Nec tar flow'd - - -

- -, with Nec - - tar flow'd.

Content and Peace the dwelling ſhar'd,
No other Gueſt came nigh,
In them was giv'n tho' Gold was ſpar'd
What Gold could never buy,
No value has a ſplendid lot,
But as the means to prove,
That from the Caſtle to the Cot,
The all of life is love.

117

4

For the Guittar

Paſtorale Andante pia.
for.
When firſt this hum-ble Roof I knew, with va-rious cares I ſtrove, My grain was ſcarce my Sheep were few, my all of life was love,
By mu-tual toil our board was dreſs'd the Spring our drink be ſtow'd, but when her Lip the brim had preſs'd the Cup with Nec-tar flow'd with Nec--tar flow'd.

2

Content and peace the dwelling ſhar'd,
No other Gueſt came nigh;
In them was giv'n tho' Gold was ſpar'd
What Gold could never buy:

No value has a ſplendid lot,
But as the means to prove;
That from the Caſtle to the Cot
The all of life is love.

For the German Flute